1. I want to personally thank you for the hard work and attention to detail you displayed in support of our Combat Logistics Regiment 15 (FORWARD)'s Alternate Mission Rehearsal Exercise (AMRX) in Yuma, AZ from 5 July 2010 to 4 August 2010. Your professionalism and unwavering devotion to duty were instrumental in ensuring that CLR-15 (FWD) is prepared to deploy to Afghanistan in support of OPERATION ENDURING FREEDOM during the 10.2 rotation. As a member of the AMRX, your impact was felt throughout the entire Forward Operating Base Mirage.

2. Being able to accomplish the mission in any clime and place is a hallmark of our Corps. The tenacity and determination you demonstrated during the performance of your duties in incredibly demanding conditions and an austere environment was in keeping with the highest traditions of our Corps. You should be proud of your efforts, and the impact it has had on CLR-15 (FWD)'s ability to execute a safe and successful deployment while adding to our Corp's legacy. When times were challenging, you demonstrated personal discipline that all Marines, seniors and peers, could be proud of.

3. In sum, your devotion and professionalism throughout the exercise reflected great credit upon yourself and the United States Marine Corps. Semper Fidelis and keep up the good job!
